which indicate the unfairness of the award. Thus the owners of the Chantieleer sont a lorcha of their own in tow of the steamer to the Prates, and this lercha conveyed all the teas from the wreck! Why should the crew of the Chanticleer reap this advantange? Truly they ure put into clover by Judge Ball. Again, on their return, they received one month's pay for their salvage services, and every one was satisfied : it was not until one year after that mischief was put in their heads. It is true that the master of the Chanticleer left the scale of remuneration for himself to the owners and that they offered bim a most sourcy sum, but then he did not ask one third of what this award will give him.
